

GREENWICH ADULT & COMMUNITY LEARNING

COURSE LIST

April – July 2018

Many other courses have already started. If you can't see what you are looking for please call us. Sometimes it is possible to join a course that's already started.

The information contained in this course list is a guide only and is accurate at the time of publication. Sometimes course dates and/or course details have to change for reasons that Greenwich Adult and Community Learning has no control over. Our staff will be able to confirm details when you book your course. You can also visit for the latest information www.LSEC.ac.uk/ACL-courses

About Greenwich Adult and Community Learning

Whatever your reason for wanting to learn, we have an exciting, affordable range of short courses for those aged 19 and over. Some of our courses are free.

Whether you want to improve your work options, build skills for self-employment, stay active during retirement or find a new hobby and meet new people, we have something for you.

Our aim is to help you get the most out of your course.

So what are you waiting for? Join our learning community and learn something new.

Coming soon – Barista Skills course

Do you want to become or currently work as a barista? This qualification course will equip you with the knowledge and skills you need to prepare and serve hot and cold drinks in any environment.

You don't need any experience or you may already be working in the hospitality industry, but it's not an essential requirement to take this qualification. We recommend that you have access to an espresso machine and grinder in order to practice making drinks in your own time. To register your interest:
