OUR ADDITIONAL SERVICES

There are many ways employers can get involved, including offering work placements, helping shape our courses, and supporting students through guest speaking opportunities, workshops, and site visits.

As an employer, there are many ways you can get involved to help support the talent of tomorrow, including:

Apprenticeships

Looking to recruit motivated new staff or develop the skills of your existing team? Our employer-focused apprenticeships help businesses improve performance, boost retention, and develop staff through structured, work-based training — with full support tailored to your organisation's goals.

Fully Funded Online Courses

Our free online courses are designed to fit around your schedule, making them ideal for continued learning, upskilling, and professional development. Each 12 - week course leads to a nationally recognised digital certificate and is available to start throughout the year.

Work and Industry Placements

Partner with London South East Colleges to support students into the world of work and help develop future talent. We arrange work placements across a wide range of subject areas, working closely with employers to ensure they are well planned, well supported, and mutually beneficial.

If you'd like to hear more about the opportunities, we'd love to hear from you.
