

Are you ready to learn?

READY TO LEARN: LEARNER CONTRACT

At London South East Colleges, we believe every learner can achieve their full potential and we are committed to supporting you throughout your journey.

Our Learning Expectations: Ready, Responsible and Respectful

- Ready: Be punctual, prepared, and engaged. Participate actively and approach challenges with a positive mindset.
- Responsible: Own your actions and learning. Follow rules, meet deadlines, use college resources appropriately, and support others.
- Respectful: Treat everyone with courtesy, listen openly, and keep the environment tidy. Communicate politely and uphold a culture of kindness.

Learner Agreement

By signing your enrolment form, you agree to:

- Attend and be on time to all scheduled lessons, workshops, English, maths and tutorials, keeping your attendance above 90%.
- Engage actively in all elements of your programme, including maths, English, and tutorial sessions.
- Respect the college environment, staff, and learners.
- Strive to meet the high standards set by London South East Colleges.
- Follow our behaviour and learning expectations of Ready, Responsible and Respect
- Follow the LSEC CARES values: Caring, Aspiration, Respect, Excellence and Support (see handbook for more detail).

Important Notice: Meeting Expectations and Support

If you do not meet the expectations outlined in this document, your place at the college may be withdrawn within the first six weeks, or disciplinary procedures may be initiated thereafter.

If there is anything we can do to support you and ensure your time at college is successful, please speak to your Student Achievement Tutor/ Lecturer.
